IBBA presents Peter Goodman with Chairman's Circle Award

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 17, 2018

(Sudbury, Massachusetts) Peter Goodman of Goodman and Company Business Brokers is the recipient of the Chairman's Circle Award given out by the International Business Brokers Association (IBBA) during its annual conference in New Orleans on May 4, 2018. The Chairman's Circle Award recognizes those who closed one or more business deals amounting to $3 million and above in total purchase price during the 2017 calendar year.

"As the only international association for business brokers, it's important for the IBBA to recognize individuals like Peter who are worldwide leaders in this industry and who display the high standards of skill and excellence that the IBBA promotes," said Warren Burkholder, IBBA Board Chair, "This award lets sellers and buyers know they are working with one of the industry's top performers."

The IBBA is the world's premier organization operating exclusively for professionals and firms engaged in business brokerage. The Member Excellence Awards Gala that the IBBA puts on during their annual conference gives winners the recognition they deserve for their achievements, while also giving their IBBA colleagues the opportunity to engage with them and learn from their experience.

Peter Goodman has been practicing business brokerage for more than 15 years and holds the designation of Certified Business Intermediary (CBI) through the International Business Brokers Association (IBBA), which is the largest and most well-respected business brokerage organization in the United States. Peter is also the President of the New England Business Brokers Association (NEBBA). In his brokerage practice Peter help owners of all types of small businesses sell their companies by analyzing, valuing and then marketing their businesses. Goodman and Company's data base of buyers includes thousands of individuals in the New England area. His mission is to work with the business owner as a friend and confidant as they navigate through the business sale process, from listing to closing; to working with the attorneys and accountants and negotiating a deal that really works for the business owner.

About the International Business Brokers Association
